

CALL FOR EXHIBITIONS FOR THE UAB EXHIBITION HALL 2026 CEX2026

The UAB aims to promote and support exhibition activities at the UAB Exhibition Hall as part of the University's regular cultural programme.

1. PURPOSE OF THE CALL

This call is open to exhibitions within the field of visual and plastic arts that align with the mission, principles, and values of the UAB.

2. ELIGIBILITY

- A. The call is open to the entire university community. Individuals who are not part of the university may also participate, provided their proposals meet the purpose of this call.
- B. Exhibitions may be submitted individually or collectively.

3. APPLICATION PROCESS

Exhibition proposals must be submitted online via the application form available at www.uab.cat/cultura between 15 June and 15 July.

Additional supporting material may be submitted in PDF format (reviews, photographs, drawings, etc.) through the application form.

The dimensions and technical specifications of the Exhibition Hall can be consulted in the floor plan, as well as the number and types of display cases available.

4. SELECTION CRITERIA

Exhibitions will be selected based on the following criteria:

- Connection to the UAB
- Artistic quality
- Social responsibility
- Relevance, diversity, and thematic originality
- Whether the work and/or exhibition materials have already been produced

Once the selection process is complete, the chosen proposals will be publicly announced on the website www.uab.cat/cultura before 30 September 2026.

All applicants will receive an email with the outcome of their submission.

Selected applicants must confirm their acceptance within 10 working days of notification; otherwise, they will be considered to have declined participation in the UAB Exhibition Hall.

If deemed appropriate, a loan or agreement document will be required, detailing the artist's responsibilities and the exhibition conditions.

Selected exhibitions will be scheduled during the 2026–2027 academic year.
