

2026-2027

PRESENTING RESEARCH

Course aimed at strengthening skills for presentations in English. Particular attention will be paid to the use of strategies to communicate effectively. Activities will be carried out to improve pronunciation and fluency (discursive markers, intonation, voice power and body language). During the course, participants will have to prepare and deliver a presentation of a research paper with a subsequent feedback session.

Aimed at

Teaching and research staff at the UAB who want to improve their communication skills in public speaking in English. If places are available PDI from attached centres or other universities may apply.

Level required

Successful completion of Level 5 (B2.2 of the CEFR, or equivalent).
