Objectives and Contextualization

Students will study the main authors and authors of Italian literature from the 19th century to the present day. The theme that will unite the course and the authors will be the "representation of feelings". They will be able to place a literary work in its precise historical context and analyze it in its complexity, being able to compare great literary themes with those of contemporary society.

At the end of the course, students will be able to

- Acquire literary and social-historical-economical knowledge about Italy from the 19th century to the present.
- Analyze and comment on a written text in both prose and verse.
- Discuss sociological-literary topics
- Connect authors and texts in an interdisciplinary way.
- Compare Italian culture with their own.
- Write an analysis/commentary as a response to a precise assignment.
- Carry out precise and circumscribed research in the literary field.
- Verbally express their point of view while respecting and sharing others ideas.

Methodology

The subject of Modern and Contemporary Italian Literature is theoretical-practical. In general terms, learning activities are organised as follows:

- Directed activities: master class; collective discussion; reading, interpreting and commenting on texts.
- Supervised activities: individual and group exercises, both written and oral; reading, interpreting and commenting on texts.
- Autonomous activities: exercises on the course's Moodle; preparation for the tests; readings, writing, search of documentation...
- Class exchanges (teacher-student, student-student)

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Continuous Assessment

The evaluation is continuous (100%) based on the following sections:

- Class participation 15%
- Class debates 25%
- Written in-class Exams 25%
- Exam on a scientific article 15%
- Reading and Presentation of a major work of Italian Modern and Contemporary Literature 20%

Single Assessment:

- Final Exam 40%
- Exam on a scientific essay 20%
- Reading and Presentation of 5 major works of Italian Modern and Contemporary Literature 40%
- Students are allowed to retake activities they have not passed only if they have already taken at least 2/3 of the overall activities, and they have an average grade of at least 3.5 (continuous assessments) or they have taken all the exams (single assessment).

- To receive the final grade, it is required to pass all the components subject to re-assessment (written exams). In-class activities, debates and presentations are excluded from re-evaluation.
 - Re-assessment for the continuous and single assessment will be the same and it will consist of a written exam.
 - Students will receive a grade of "Not Evaluable" if s/he has not submitted more than 30% of the graded activities.
 - Participation assessment may also include the participation to cultural activities proposed by the professor.
 - Before posting the final grades, and prior to record them on the transcripts, the professor will provide date and time for the written re-take exam.
 - Students are fully responsible for checking all their graded activities/exams.
 - If a student commits any irregularity that lead to a significant variation of the grade in any activity, s/he will be given zero for this activity regardless of any disciplinary process that may follow up. In the event of several irregularities, the student will be given zero as final grade for the subject.
 - In the event that tests or exams cannot be taken onsite, they will be taken online through the UAB online tools (original grade weighting will be maintained). Homework, activities, and class participation will be carried out through forums, wikis and/or discussion on Teams, etc. Lecturers will ensure that students are able to access these remote tools, and/or will offer feasible alternatives.
 - Italian Erasmus students have to take an additional and mandatory oral exam consisting of two parts: in the first, they have to demonstrate the reading knowledge of 3 essays (books and/or articles) and 2 novels/collections of poems chosen from the bibliography; in the second, they have to prove their knowledge of the main authors and movements of XIX-XX century Italian literature, by studying the Literature manual indicated in the bibliography.
- If the student does not pass this exam, the grade for the course will be a fail.
