

2023-2024

STUDENTS SPEAKING ABOUT LANGUAGES: UNIVERSITY LANGUAGE- POLICY PROPOSALS

This workshop covers aspects of university policy (agents involved, management and areas of application) which allow a critical analysis of the management of multilingualism at the university and also the creation of proposals for action.

Aimed at

UAB students interested in contributing to the university's language policy.

Level required

None.

Calendar and timetable

From November 2023 to January 2024.

In-class sessions: 6th, 20th November and 4th, 18th December, from 12pm to 2pm.

Duration

8 classroom hours and 17 hours of independent work.

Other information

- Maximum number of students per group is 15. The Language Service reserves the right to cancel groups which do not have a minimum number of students.
- If you want more information about the course more information about the course please contact the Language Service or see the website.
- The workshop is free for students of the UAB and is worth 1 ECTS credit which is recognised for Bachelor's degrees (you must come to the classroom sessions and actively participate in the proposed activities and evaluate them).
- There may be changes to courses at the Language Service if the university, in accordance with the health authorities, decides to place restrictions on face-to-face teaching.