Eines 2.0 per comunicar la recerca

La conferència Eines 2.0 per comunicar la recerca, adreçada a estudiants de doctorat, docents i investigadors, té com a objectiu demostrar els beneficis derivats de la utilització de recursos basats en la web 2.0, com per exemple els blogs i les xarxes socials com Twitter o Researchgate, per incrementar la difusió, la visibilitat i l'impacte de la producció científica dels investigadors, així com per millorar la seva reputació digital.

La presentació anirà a càrrec del senyor Xavier Lasauca i Cisa, responsable de Gestió del Coneixement i Sistemes d'Informació en R+D a la Direcció General de Recerca (Secretaria d'Universitats i Recerca, Departament d'Empresa i Coneixement de la Generalitat de Catalunya). La jornada s'estructura en una exposició d'aproximadament una hora i mitja seguida d'un torn obert de preguntes.

Aquesta conferència, organitzada pel Servei de Biblioteques de la UAB, s'emmarca en la Setmana Internacional d'Accés Obert (23-29 d'octubre) i es podrà seguir en streaming a http://campusmedia.uab.cat.

Data: 25/10/2017
Hora: de les 11:00 a les 13:00 h.
Lloc: Aula Magna - Facultat de Ciències de la Comunicació
Idioma: Castellà
Formador: Xavier Lausaca i Cisa
Inscripcions: És imprescindible formalitzar prèviament la inscripció a través d'aquest enllaç.

Responsible Research and Innovation: How to maximize the local impact of my research?

The course provides theoretical and practical training about responsible research, addressing issues of communication, participation, and intervention with young people. Specifically, the aim of the course is to provide researchers with various tools and skills to communicate their research, to critically analysed it, and promote its local impact. The course is part of the European Research Project.

Note that the training is composed by 6 sessions along different weeks. However, students interested only in the practical part can also attend single sessions of their interest, without following the whole training.

Place: UAB/ Sala d'Actes de la Plaça Cívica
Language: English
Dates: 2, 9,15, 23, 30 November / 1st December

Addressed to: PhD candidates and postdoctoral researchers.

How to design and defend your PhD with the Idea Puzzle® software

3rd Edition

PhD School organizes the seminar "How to design and defend your PhD with the Idea Puzzle® software", led by Professor Ricardo Morais.

After the seminar, participants will be able to design, diagnose, and defend a research project in any field of knowledge with the Idea Puzzle® software. Such results constitute and investment in life-long research skills.

The seminar will be entirely in English.

Session for students, supervisors and methodology teachers in any field of knowledge.

December 13, 2017.

Place: Movie Theater UAB. Agora building.

Time: 11:00 am

Seminar language: English.

Topics

1. Research as a system of 21 decisions
2. Theoretical decisions of your research
3. Methodological decisions of your research
4. Empirical decisions of your research
5. Rhetoric decisions of your research
6. Authorial decisions of your research
7. Application to participants' research with the Idea Puzzle® software

"Gender and diversity in research and research funding"

Date: 23/02/2018, from 10 a.m.- 2 p.m.
Venue: Sala de Graus II, Facultat de Ciències, UAB.
Places: 40
Language: English
Target audience: pre-docs, post-docs, researchers, research managers.

The aim of the workshop is to build knowledge and skills regarding the benefits and implications of considering gender and diversity in research projects. The workshop will help the participants to gain knowledge, understanding and skills of implementing a gender and diversity perspective in their research and in their proposal writing. An introduction will be made to what a gender perspective is as well as methods on how to evaluate the benefits and implications of considering gender and diversity.

Academic Biography: Dr. Bodil Formark works as Research Coordinator at the External Relations Office/Grants Office, Umeå University in Sweden. Together with Dr. Anna-Karin Frih she is module leader for "Gender and diversity in research management" within the EARMA certification program. She currently also works part-time as a lecturer at Umeå Centre for Gender Studies. Dr. Formark's activities as a researcher have primarily been within the fields of History, Gender Studies and Girlhood Studies.
Dr Anna-Karin Frih is a research advisor at Grants Office Örebro University.
Her responsibilities include pre-award services for national as well as EU-funding and giving seminars for researchers on topics such as grant writing, career development and research strategies. Her background in research and teaching in History and Gender Studies, combined with expertise in administrative support and counseling in external research funding, forms the basis of her interest and knowledge in issues concering gender, diversity and EU funding. She is also a trainer in Earma's certificate program.

"Responsible PhD: Integrating Responsible Research and Innovation in PhD Research"

Date: 12/02/18 + 26/0218 from 3 p.m. - 7 p.m.
Venue: room 32, Aulari Central, UAB.
Places: 15
Language: Castellà/Català. Material: English

Addressed to: Participating students need to meet all requirements to enrol in a doctoral or PhD programme. They should be at the beginning of their PhD project, but they should already know their (preliminary) research topics and designs.

This seminar will introduce PhD students to different concepts of Responsible Research and Innovation (RRI) and initiate deliberation on how to make a PhD research project more responsible. Students will read about and discuss several concepts of RRI in groups and then apply them to concrete case examples of R&I processes. Furthermore, participants will introduce their own PhD research projects or first project ideas and identify possibilities to make them more responsible by using various concepts of RRI.
